Dear xxx

Temple Sholom is excited to announce the next phase of our Sholom Bamidbar Initiative - “Out of the Wilderness”. After dozens of conversations amongst our Temple Sholom members as part of our initial Sholom Bamidbar engagement campaign, we learned a great deal about how we each navigated the pandemic. We learned about the important role Temple played in supporting each of us. We also heard consistent suggestions on how the temple can help all of us as we emerge from the physical and, for many, emotional isolation of the past two years.

A critical and practical suggestion was that the temple help organize small groups of members for in-person activities and outings. Helping us reconnect and re-engage with each other and the world.

To that end we are excited to share with you “Out of the Wilderness”. If you have an activity that you would like to experience with a small group of Temple Sholom members we want to help facilitate that. Maybe you have the idea but not the group, we can help you find a group. Maybe you have the group, the idea but need a little financial incentive to make it actually happen. We can help with that as well.

If you’re looking to reconnect with your friends in person or to make new ones, to get out of your bubble a bit and enjoy a hike, a book club, a museum visit, a bike ride, a picnic in the park or pretty much anything else, click this link to sign up.

The strength of our community is our community. Let’s emerge from the wilderness of the past two years together and let Temple Sholom help us do it.
